

Please be advised that I am strongly opposed to the weakening of the Indiana State Privacy Law. The lobbying efforts of the Consumer Bankers Association to override the Indiana State Privacy Law by imposing the federal "established business relationship" exemption in my opinion violates my right to be comfortable in my own home. Do I really need to put my money in a mattress and cut off all my business relationships with banks in order to keep my privacy? This seems ridiculous...

Please hear my request!

Susan M. Calder